

Discrediting Jesus' Power

Luke 11:14-26

Jesus' antagonists seek to discredit His display of power over demons as a work of Satan.

1. Satan driving out demons would be _____. (v 17-19)

1.1 It would be _____. (v 18)

- Satan's kingdom would be _____.
- A divided kingdom would _____ itself.

1.2 It would be _____. (v 19)

- The Jews _____ their own exorcists as operating by God's power, but not Jesus.
- The Jews will be _____ for their rejection of Jesus.

2. Only God's power can ultimately _____ demons and Satan. (v 20-23)

2.1 It would be an _____ that Jesus is the Messiah. (v 20)

- Jesus must be _____ miracles with God's power – the finger of God.
- Jesus must be _____ the kingdom of God.

2.2 It would be an _____ that Jesus has the power to defeat Satan. (v 21-22)

- Jesus is _____ than Satan.
- Jesus _____ free those who have been captivated by Satan.

3. Jesus will never _____ with Satan in anything, being diametrically opposed to Satan. (v 23-26)

3.1 No one can _____ to be neutral concerning Jesus; either one is for Jesus or against Him. (v 23)

- Jesus _____ the nation of Israel, but Satan seeks to scatter it.
- Anyone guiding Israel to unite under God _____ with Jesus, but anyone dividing Israel is against Him.

3.2 No one can _____ free of demonic oppression without filling the void with God's Spirit. (v 24-26)

- Jesus and His disciples were _____ the land of Israel of demonic influences.
- If the nation did not believe in Jesus as their Messiah, demonic oppression would _____ and be worse than before.